The Honorable Chuck Schumer
Minority Leader
U.S. Senate
Washington, D.C. 20510

Dear Attorney General Bondi,

We, the undersigned 303 former U.S. Department of Justice (DOJ or the Department) prosecutors and civil rights attorneys, represent over 60 years of public service to DOJ across 36 states, Puerto Rico, and the District of Columbia. We write to express our collective concern about DOJ's handling of the recent fatal officer-involved shootings of Renee Good and Alex Petti in Minneapolis, Minnesota.

According to public reporting, the Department has prevented Minnesota's Bureau of Criminal Apprehension (BCA) from investigating these incidents by refusing to share evidence with and investigate alongside BCA, as well as taking measures that prevent BCA from conducting its own investigation.<sup>1</sup>

Blocking a state law enforcement agency from investigating potential violations of state law in its own jurisdiction would mark a severe departure from established DOJ norms and pose a serious threat to the rule of law.

We urge the Department to follow decades of established, bipartisan practices of cooperation and deconfliction between federal and state authorities in officer-involved use-of-force investigations. To do so, DOJ should preserve and share all evidence with BCA; refrain from hindering any part of BCA's investigation; and work cooperatively with BCA, the Hennepin County Attorney's Office, the Minnesota Attorney General's Office, and other local authorities so that both federal and state investigations of the shootings may proceed.

On January 7, 2026, an Immigration and Customs Enforcement (ICE) agent shot and killed Ms. Good in Minneapolis during a federal immigration enforcement action branded "Operation Metro Surge."<sup>2</sup> DOJ subsequently announced that it found “no basis for a criminal civil rights investigation.”<sup>3</sup> Fewer than three weeks later, on January 24, DHS agents shot and killed Mr. Pretti, after which federal agencies asserted that Mr. Pretti was armed and “violently resisted” federal law enforcement.<sup>4</sup> In both cases, the chief state prosecutor with jurisdiction over these matters, Hennepin County Attorney Mary Moriarty, made clear her office’s commitment to ensuring a thorough state-level investigation of the incidents can proceed.<sup>5</sup> Likewise, Minneapolis Police Chief Brian O’Hara has specifically requested BCA’s assistance to investigate.<sup>6</sup>

However, according to public reporting, when BCA personnel arrived to begin their investigation of the officer-involved shooting of Alex Pretti, federal authorities ordered them to leave, denying them access to the crime scene and the evidence contained therein.<sup>7</sup> As the 303 below signatories can attest from more than 60 years of collective experience, the DOJ has authority neither in the law nor in generally accepted law enforcement investigatory practices of officer-involved shootings to prevent BCA from conducting its own investigation in coordination with the Federal Bureau of Investigation (FBI), the U.S. Attorney’s Office, and the U.S. Department of Justice’s Civil Rights Division.

Under well-established principles of dual sovereignty, both federal and state authorities may investigate and prosecute the same incident under their respective laws.<sup>8</sup> According to the FBI, “State and local law enforcement agencies are not subordinate to the FBI, and the FBI does not supervise or take over their investigations.”<sup>9</sup> It is standard practice for federal and local authorities to investigate cases in tandem, preserve and share evidence, and deconflict law enforcement activities in pursuit of just results.<sup>10</sup>

From our collective expertise and experience as federal prosecutors, it is highly unusual for federal authorities to block a state investigative agency from investigating a potential crime in its own jurisdiction—particularly in high-stakes matters involving an officer’s use of deadly force. BCA—and effectively preventing the Hennepin County Attorney’s Office—from investigating the deaths of Renee Good and Alex Pretti would undermine cooperative law enforcement frameworks that exist to deliver accuracy, accountability, and public confidence in the rule of law and its impartial application. If the Department’s ultimate assessments of these two shootings reflect confidence that the actions of the involved officers were lawful and justified, there should be no objection to independent state review of both incidents.

No matter which party sits in the White House, DOJ plays a crucial role in ensuring that the American people can trust the justice system to preserve our foundational values of life and liberty. The well-being of the country seems to now sit on a knife’s edge, with President Trump acknowledging that de-escalation is necessary<sup>11</sup> to avoid further loss of life, property, and trust in our institutions.

For this to happen, DOJ should allow a transparent, unbiased, and impartial investigation into both shootings, including by sharing evidence with BCA and refraining from preventing BCA or local prosecutors from conducting independent investigations.
