

FEDERAL BUREAU OF INVESTIGATION

Date of entry 10/22/2019

While previously scheduling the interview with SA [REDACTED], [REDACTED] telephonically advised she recently, "started working with" attorneys [REDACTED] [REDACTED] stated she wanted to be upfront with the agents regarding her pending civil case in the event the agents determined a conflict of interest could occur.

During the interview, [REDACTED] did not seek advice of counsel, and none were present.

Prior to being asked any questions regarding the case, the agents asked whether they could audio record the interview. [REDACTED] advised she was not comfortable being recorded at that time. [REDACTED] requested agents explain to her the goal and parameters of the fourth interview. She indicated she was aware that because she was victimized several years prior, the statutes of limitation of any viable federal violation may have run. She asked agents, "what's the point?" The agents explained that all victims of crime should have the opportunity to tell their story; they wanted to provide her with that opportunity should she choose to accept. The agents also explained why they wished to keep the fourth interview focused on abuse [REDACTED] endured at the hands of individuals associated with JEFFREY EPSTEIN. [REDACTED] previously mentioned she had sexual contact with (current U.S. President) DONALD TRUMP while she was a minor. She previously explained the contact was facilitated through her association with EPSTEIN. [REDACTED] was asked whether she felt comfortable detailing her contacts with TRUMP. [REDACTED] again asked what the point would be of providing the information at this point in her life when there was a strong possibility nothing could be done about it.

The agents asked [REDACTED] to go home and take as much time as she needed to think about speaking with the agents further. [REDACTED] agreed and the interview ended.
